Subject: TAMU-CC Information: Student Code of Conduct & Student Sexual Misconduct Process

Attached you will find copies of the Student Code of Conduct 2014-2015 and the Student Sexual Misconduct Process. These documents outline the expectations of each Islander student and clearly gives the definition of unacceptable behavior for Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi students. All students are responsible for abiding by these policies at all times, regardless of location. These documents, along with other resources and information regarding the conduct process, can be found online at <http://judicialaffairs.tamucc.edu>. If you would like to report an incident to the Office of Judicial Affairs you can do so at <http://incidentreportform.tamucc.edu>.

Please note the Student Sexual Misconduct Process outlines specific accommodations and rights given to student involved in incidents of this nature. Aside from using the online reporting system you may also report sexual misconduct incidents such as sexual harassment and assault, stalking, dating and domestic violence to the Title IX Coordinator, Mr. Sam Ramirez, at (361) 825-2765 and/or the University Police Department (UPD) at (361) 825-4444. In addition, if you are a victim of crime, you may speak to the Crime Victims Liaison, Lt. Melissa Wright, at (361) 825-3791. The Crime Victims Liaison can provide assistance and information regarding rights of victims, filing protective orders, police procedures, etc. If you are uncertain if you are ready to report or if you would just like to speak with someone confidentially about what has happened, you may contact the University Counseling Center at (361) 825-2703 to make an appointment.

Any questions regarding these documents and available resources can be directed to the Associate Dean of Students, Ms. Angela Walker, at 361-825-2612.
